Principal's Report

Holiday Boutique is coming up Friday of this week. They are starting to plan for January and February events like 100th day of school and Family Dance. On January 16 we will be hosting have a great Coffee and Talk January 16 Thursday. Dean of safety and wellness rayn caray talking about school safety.

Board Reports

Treasure's Report – The new protocol for reimbursement has been working very well. It has helped Wacky Wednesday – all parents of 5th graders will receive an email for the donation for the 5th grade party. Hidden Hills do a fundraising musical every year in February. This year RMPFA will be one of the recipients.

Committee Reports

Upcoming Events

Halloween Grams – Community Outreach – They picked up all the items yesterday and it was a great turnout so there will be a lot of families happy this year

Holiday Boutique – They still need some help for cashiers for Friday. They also need help setting up on Thursday. There will be several lunch trunks here during the day.

Holiday Staff Luncheon – This Wednesday is the staff luncheon. They are a staffed for volunteers for the event but they could use 1 or 2 volunteers to help cleanup after.

Spirit Wear – There is a brand new set of Spirit Round Designs going up in the online store. The new round will close on December 23 with delivery in the New Year. You can have the items shipped to the school or your home.

DVD Liason – We are in desperate need of a DVD liason for THIS YEAR! Please email presidents@rmpfa.org if you are able to help.
